Lord, Here I am, please send me to that place

I long to find the things You gave just to me
And not be led astray by what people say I want to find the things prepared just for me and not be deceived by what I see, helping those in need I pray the light of Christ that shines in me will save the field and make the darkness flee Lord, I pray that You would fill my soul
Your Spirit is all I need

In Your name, I'll boldly go and conquer

I will go into that field prepared for me
